

CONNECTIONS

Challenge Barriers. Build Independence.

Director of Programs & Services Job Description

Connections for Independent Living is the nonprofit Independent Living Center for northeastern Colorado, serving people with disabilities throughout seven counties.

The Director of Programs and Services (DPS) reports to the Chief Operating Officer (COO) and is responsible for overseeing junior managers and front-line staff. The DPS will work closely with the COO to provide oversight of the five core services of independent living, transitions, peer counseling, information & referral, and individual & systems advocacy. Additionally, the COO and DPS will be responsible for the administration of special grant funded programs and Connections' Housing Choice Voucher program. The DPS ensures IL programs meet all state, federal, and local compliance standards; all Statements of Work and program goals as outlined in grants; and captures data necessary for accurate grant reporting. DPS also ensures that the philosophy, mission, goals and core values of Connections are maintained throughout all programs.

A typical day may include coaching and training team members, meeting with internal and external stakeholders, gathering data, and preparing reports. This position is flex-hybrid with most of the work expected to take place in the office, however travel within our seven county catchment area in Northeastern Colorado will be necessary and work-from-home will be available to ensure the efficient use of days. Connections currently works Monday through Thursday in the office. Fridays are remote for all staff.

The successful candidate must have exceptional organizational skills and be detail oriented. They must work to manage their schedule to avoid intense pressure and recognize that sometimes external factors can create temporary pressure situations. When these situations occur the individual must have a way of managing their resources well to continue to meet deadlines and work their way out of the pressure. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills with the ability to multitask and adapt to many communication styles is required. Bilingual candidates are given preference. A sense of levity and humor is most appreciated. People who live with disabilities are always the most preferred applicants.
